Germans Reported Planning Land and Sea Attacks To-day

Paris, Jan. 26.-The Germans are said to be preparing to give to-morow as a birthday present to their Emperor a surprise of great victories. From different quarters, Holland, Italy and Switzerland, come reports for general offensive on the whole front, Zeppelin and aeroplane raids on London, Calais and Paris and a sortie of dreadnoughts for a decisive battle. Important reinforcements of German troops are being concentrated in Flanders and several sharp engagements have already been reported German prisoners and also German soldiers in conversations with the French in nearby trenches have been saying that a great battle, the great et of this war, is to be fought this week in the southern part of Belgium. How nearly true these reports are it is difficult to say, but it is anquestionable that enormous numbers of infantrymen and numerous guns are being rushed by railroad and automobile toward Courtrai and Lille

These new troops are said to amount to 200,000 men. letter just received from Germany states that surprises this week in France have been promised the German people. It is realized here however, that these reports may have been allowed to pass for the purpos of frightening the French population.

If you figure it solely on the square foot basis without regard to facilities and service, then it is not improbable that you can afford to continue in your present location INDEFINITELY.
